Columbus Elegance at Easton Town Center

This Columbus steakhouse displays the iconic green and white exterior made famous by Smith & Wollensky. Its revolving antique oak door at the entrance welcomes guests into a world where fine dining and rustic American décor mingle together to create memorable experiences.

Located at 4145 The Strand West, Smith & Wollensky is the flagship of the Easton Town Center. Inside, the restaurant boasts Americana in its intimate spaces available for business or private gatherings accommodating from 20 to 150 guests. Each room in the multi-story building has its own character and warm, inviting personality to accompany the world-class American cuisine and famous signature steaks.

In the Flag Room, guests will enjoy an intimate space with wine cabinetry, an intricate ceiling and a warm fireplace. The Duck Room features a large copper bar, American antiques, hardwood floors and a large, personalized chalkboard.

The Chef's Room is an intimate space, which has a large glass window providing a clear and fascinating view of the impressive kitchen. The Brick Room features brick walls and a vaulted brick ceiling. It also offers an exclusive view of some of the best all-American wines in the cellar.

The menu offers something for everyone and every type of event inside the beautifully-adorned, iconic Smith & Wollensky Columbus steakhouse.

The restaurant is open seven days a week, Monday through Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to midnight, and Sunday from noon until 9:00 p.m.
