

Waterfront Splendor at Miami's South Pointe Park

Smith & Wollensky's Miami Beach steakhouse allows guests to revel in all the splendor of the waterfront view while indulging in the restaurant's refined service and unparalleled menu.

Located at 1 Washington Ave., this fine dining establishment's breathtaking location is set along the crystal waters of the nearby Government Cut Channel. The expansive and elegant building boasts a waterfront café, outdoor patio, two floors of restaurant seating and water view private dining rooms for groups from 20 to 450.

Guests will soak up the beautiful views of Fisher Island and the channel from the completely private Vanderbilt Room which includes its own bar and reception area just outside the entrance. Offering panoramic views of the channel and Fisher Island is the Government Cut Room.

From the glass-enclosed Park Room, there is a spectacular view overlooking the water and South Pointe Park. The Fisher Island Room is a sunken water-view space perfect for intimate parties. In the Grill Room, there is a large built-in bar and a private entrance.

No matter what the occasion, Smith & Wollensky's Miami Beach steakhouse surpasses guests' expectations with impeccable service, extraordinary scenery, amazing ambiance and its famous signature steaks.

The restaurant is open seven days a week, Sunday through Thursday from noon to 11:00 p.m., and Friday and Saturday from noon to midnight.
